ACCORDING to Article 17 of our Constitution, all the children of Bangladesh are supposed to receive full free education up to secondary level. But in reality, it is not so, especially for children from poorer households in rural areas. Recent survey done by BRAC reveals that poor parents have to pay bribe at every step of their child's schooling. Such corrupt practice of extorting money from poor parents prevails among about half of the government schools in the country. (The Daily Star May 9, 2014)

Bangladesh has one of the largest primary education systems in the world, according to the Directorate of Primary Education (DPE). There are a total of 37,672 government primary schools in the country with an estimated 10.7

Causes of Educational inequality in Bangladesh

Expensive tuition fees: According to a research a student have to pay 10/15 lac for their graduation .

Early marriage : 64% of women currently aged 20–24 were married before the age of 18

Effects of Educational inequality in Bangladesh

Barrier for development: There are 84 million males and 82.2 million females in Bangladesh.

Illegal activities: In 2012, 751 children and teenagers were accused in 484 cases. In the first six months of 2020, 1,191 were arrested in 821 cases

Action plans for solving educational inequality

| ACTIONS   | ANTICIPATED CHALLENGES  | RESOURCES  | OUTCOME INDICATORS   |
|---|---|--|--|
| 1. Introducing a flexible educational system for students who are economically disadvantaged. 2. Making inclusions for students regardless of their background. | Lack of resources like not enough well-trained teachers and infrastructure . Lack of awareness in the tertiary levels among parents and education facilitators. | Increasing budget allocation for education and , making sure of its implementation . Organizing campaigns and programs to make people habituated with the inclusion. | Doing a survey about the students who can not attend classes because of the pressure of earning money and how to allocate them at alternate policies like night school, holiday classes etc. Doing an impact analysis of the execution of educational inclusion and how to build a friendly comfortable background for all levels of students. |

5. Probable impact of the action plan

- Introduce a leveled playground in education for students and distinguish segregation in educational institutes
- A friendly environment and a culture of respect will be created, resulting in a fellowship between students.
